Dear Sir,

Consequent upon the moratorium imposed by Kannada Film Industry on simultaneous release of Non-Kannada films in Karnataka State, we understand that Telugu Film Chamber of Commerce and Telugu Film Producers Council, in consultation with the Telugu Film Distributors and Exhibitors of Karnataka, had taken a decision on 06th January 2009 under self regulations, for simultaneous release of Telugu Films restricting the number of prints to 14 (fourteen) in old Mysore territory excluding Bellary and Raichur.

Pursuant to the above, we also understand that the Executive Committee of the Chamber in meeting held on 06th January, 2009 adopted a resolution to the effect that the producers will give a letter of undertaking before obtaining Publicityclearance from the Chamber that will not place order for more than 14 prints for exploitation in Karnataka as indicated above.

In line with the above, having asked for publicity clearance in respect of our film “ _____ ” (Telugu) we hereby undertake that we will not place order with the laboratory for more than 14 prints for release in Karnataka State in strict compliance of decision as mentioned above.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully

To
The Hon. Secretary,
Telugu Film Chamber of Commerce,
Filmnagar, Hyderabad.
